Life After a Trip Around the World. Just because our trip around the world came to an end, our travels did not have to end, also. Now we are home owners, work full time jobs, and have two kids in public school. Still, we find the time to travel. In fact, we make it a priority. For us, an around the world trip did not extinguish our wanderlust.

This pretty Trip Around The World is a small project, small enough to give it a try. Some patterns are pieced by sewing individual squares together. The instructions are complicated, and the method seems so challenging that after reading all instructions, a quilter lacking in even the slightest confidence, might look for another quilt to make.
