The Cestus Deception is an overall good book, that seems to be the perfect mix of a Jedi centric book and a Travis Clone Commando book. I liked how many of the characters are spot on (maybe Kit Fisto seemed a bit off), but what seemed odd, that at the same time the characterization of organisations seemed off.

Deception in itself is an intriguing subject, considering that the entire galaxy is engulfed in a state of chaos, full scale war doesn't touch Ord Cestus. Deceptions are the guns of war used on Ord Cestus... it plays out more like a Cold War scenario, which, in my opinion, made the book a gripping read.
