Briefly, it ' s the tale of a one-lunged waif, Spit Nolan, who is a champion trolley, or soapbox rider. He rises to a challenge from Leslie Duckett, who has been given his own custom-built trolley. They race down one of the few tarmac roads in Bolton (it seems to be set some time after the Great War). Leslie just beats Spit but, in the process, sends him careering into an oncoming charabanc, causing Spit ' s death.

1971 Anthony Nolan was born with a rare condition called Wiskott-Aldrich syndrome. The only cure was a bone marrow transplant. But none of his family were a match, and a transplant using bone marrow from an unrelated donor had never succeeded. There was no system to find matching unrelated donors, either. 1973 A little boy called Simon Bostic had the first successful unrelated donor transplant ...
