What Is Faith? - Word of His Grace

An opposite party, however, makes faith to consist in a crouching, a cringing, and a conformity to a crafty priesthood. Now I have no such faith as either of these. The one is the faith of the infidel; the other is the faith of heathenism. And they neither of them have any substance. I want a faith that will manifest itself as having substance.

Some believe this verse may be telling us that faith is literally a "spiritual substance" that operates on the inside of us and that it is capable of growing or waning. However, other Bible Scholars do not believe that faith is an actual substance. Their argument is based off the Greek word for the word "substance."

Verse 1. - Now faith is the substance (so A.V., with marginal readings, "or ground, or, confidence") of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. On the senses in which the word ὑπόστασις (translated "substance") may be used, see under Hebrews 1:2. As to the sense intended here, views differ. There are three possible ones, expressed in the text and margin of the A.V ...
